

TOWER NOTES - AUGUST 2025

Prospect Street - A United Methodist Congregation

Volume 16, Issue 8

There are a number of stories in the New Testament, specifically the gospels that I love so much and that I hearken back to over and over again. One of them is the parable of the prodigal son; another is the parable of the Good Samaritan. Stories that aren't officially parables but in my opinion have deeper meanings that I also continue to use as perfect examples of faith are the feeding of the five thousand and perhaps the best, Jesus trying to get Peter to go out with him to walk on water.

I love this story because it is a really good example of what I believe faith really looks like. Faith isn't getting on a plane in hopes that you will make it to your destination. Planes have been found to more often than not get from point a to point b. Faith is not believing that your car will start when you turn the key, more often than not this tends to happen. Most of our lives are run in this fashion, when you jump up, gravity will bring you back to earth. The truth is, we place very little faith in anything in our lives, we take very few chances and risks. We tend to play it safe with everything we do. You could justify this behavior by saying we play it smart and I get that. I will only go so far with that theory though. Obviously, having faith doesn't mean being foolish or careless. Don't go jumping off the roof of a building without a parachute or net and claim that faith will catch you. And seriously, hear me when I say this...don't go trying to walk on water if you can't swim. While the story of Jesus walking on the water and Peter struggling to do so are read as literal and I have no problem with that being the case.

I also believe this story like many others in the gospels hold deeper meanings than what lies on the surface. What the story of Jesus walking on the water is telling us is that it's one thing to have faith in the boat. To believe when you get in it that it will carry you to the other side. It's another thing entirely to go out into the water and leave that boat. The boat we call faith but in truth it is actually not what we believe in but what we already know. Everything else outside of the boat is that which we don't know. And since we don't know it...we have a choice, to reject it or have faith in it. We find that when it comes to our faith, we are clinging to the boat but we are not clinging to Jesus. How do we know? Because he is already out there with an outstretched arm telling us where he is, is where we need to be.

Whatever boundaries you have placed in your life, status quo, the norm, safe comfortable places, Jesus is calling you to have faith and to break down those boundaries. Our spirits were made to expand and explore, to get out of our boats and see Christ in the vast expansive places in our lives and to know that all of us were made for more in this world than the safe faithless human creations we have grown so accustomed to.

The Flower Calendar for 2025 is hanging up in the hallway. The price for fresh flowers is $46.95. Silk flowers are still $5.00. Select your date to remember a loved one or to honor a family member or friend. Make checks payable to Prospect Street United Methodist Church.

Watch our services on YouTube! Just go to our website and click the YouTube link. Our website address is: www.prospectstreetumc.com.

Service DVD's for Shut-Ins! We have DVD's available of our 10:30 a.m. worship service for anyone who would like to borrow or have a copy. We are delivering DVD's on Monday mornings!

Memorial Pavers can be ordered for summer installation. If you would like to purchase a paver for the Memorial Park, forms are available on the library table located in the south alcove. The pavers can be in memory of loved ones who have passed away, or in honor of anyone or anything that you would wish to praise. Cost of a paver is $75.00. Order forms can be turned in to the office.

Upcoming Events

Just a reminder that the Popcorn Festival is coming up very soon. The dates of the festival are September 4th, 5th, and 6th. Our church will be involved again. Please start thinking about contributing in some way. This is a church-wide event.

If you are not a baker but would like to contribute to the bake sale booth, we can always use sandwich size zip lock plastic bags to put the treats in to sell them. If you are a baker or candy maker, keep reading:

We always need lots of baked goods and candies over the 3-day period. Please bring your goodies in on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday. By Saturday, we are usually pretty stocked for the last day of the festival. Almost anything sells well, with the exception of cupcakes and muffins. While all breads seem to sell well, zucchini breads and banana or banana/nut breads are always the most requested. Pies of all sizes also sell very well. We always receive a good variety of cookies, so keep up the good work on them. No bake cookies are the most requested.

As far as candies go, fudges and other chocolate candies tend to sell very well for examples, Buckeyes, nut clusters, and "Puppy Chow." We have a small refrigerator at the booth so we can sell these chocolate treats all day without worrying about them melting, so keep the fudge and candies coming.

We also have people stop at the booth and ask if we have anything sugar free and now gluten free, too. If you have good sugar free or gluten free recipes, please think about making them so our booth can have something for everyone. Hopefully, these suggestions have been helpful and we will get a good turnout of products to sell.

If you have any questions, call Judy Stambazze at 740-225-5618.

A sign-up sheet for volunteers to help man the booth and/or work in the church basement packaging and pricing the donated items will be posted after the Ice Cream Social. It is very important that we have help packaging and pricing. We used to have quite a few ladies that helped in the basement, but those numbers are dwindling. Please be supportive of this church-wide endeavor and give a little bit of your time.

A sign-up sheet to man the parking lot will also be in the foyer with the booth sign-up sheet.

Church Basement Sale – October 3rd and October 4th! We are preparing for our annual Basement Sale. You can start bringing in items for the sale beginning September 2 to the old basement. If you need help with items, just call the church and we can make some arrangements with you. We are asking for items to be clean and in good working conditions. We will not be taking clothes or shoes. We will need volunteers to help the week before and the 2-days of the sale. If you have questions or feel led to help, please call the church office and let us know. Let's make this project a fun time! Thanks, John Row

United Women In Faith

The Ice Cream Social is being worked on by all Circles. We look forward to seeing you August 1st!

The Martha Horne Circle will meet again on Thursday, August 7th, at 6 p.m. in the Fellowship Hall. Pizza and salad buffet. Judy Stambazze will be guest speaker to talk to us about the Popcorn Festival.

The Hilda Weiss Circle will meet again on Monday, August 11th, at 1 p.m. in the Fellowship Hall.

The United Women In Faith Executive Board will meet Monday, August 25th, at 2 p.m. in the Fellowship Hall.

Hello...we want to thank everyone for using the Prayer Wall. There are many prayer requests and thanks for answered prayers on the wall. Thank you. We are still looking for a canopy that we can use during the Popcorn Festival. We will stay on the church property, but we want to be available for specific hours, in case someone needs prayer. Our plan is to be available Thursday, Friday, and Saturday from 1 – 5 p.m. Also, we are making fun kits to give to children. The kits will have a coloring book, sticker, bookmarks, and other assorted goodies. These were given out last year, both at the festival and at Trunk-or-Treat. What a big hit! Please hold us in prayer as we are working on brining the Word out to others, both in the church and outside of the church. Keep praying for us as we are praying for you.

Education Team

We had a very busy July! The kick-off Carnival for VBS was held on Saturday, July 12th. Thank you to all the folks who contributed their time, efforts, and resources! Because of the high temperatures we had been experiencing, we wanted canopies to protect our workers from the blazing sun. You managed to provide enough canopies that none of our workers had to suffer from too much sun!

We had a multitude of games, face painting, and a bouncy house for the children to enjoy. We were also treated to snow cones to help keep us cool. As always, there was no cost to attend the carnival and the snow cones were free, also.

Ample helpers were involved so everything ran smoothly. Thank you to everyone who contributed to the success of our special event!

Our Vacation Bible School, Camp Firelight, was a huge hit with the children. Children participated in five activities each day in addition to the exhilarating opening and closing. We had an enthusiastic group of 4 young women who set the scene for us each night with the opening skit and puppets. Then the children traveled from activity to activity with others in their age groups. They experienced Music, Games, Science, Crafts, and Bible Story Telling each night.

To kick each evening off, our Kitchen Crew served a light supper. As always, the food was delicious and filling. The homemade chicken nuggets were the biggest hit but no complaints were heard about any of the meals served. Upon dismissal, the children were able to choose 2 snacks to take home with them. Thanks to your generosity, we even had a few extra snacks which we donated to the Community Supper. Our Mission Project this year was collecting items needed for that ministry.

In addition to all the adults who helped make VBS a success, I want to give a shout out to all the Youth who volunteered this year. They helped in every area and provided much extra energy and enthusiasm with their efforts. It was very rewarding to watch them helping the children and their help was greatly appreciated.

I almost forgot to mention the decorating team. It never fails to amaze me at the transformation they bring about in our ordinary spaces. It feels like we have stepped into another world as soon as we enter the building!

We hope more of you will join us next year as we try to provide our children with a strong foundation for their faith. Thanks again for all you do to support our children's ministry efforts!

Sunday School

The Faith Builders Sunday School Class meets in the Upper Room. Hollie Freshour is the facilitator.

The Teen Sunday School Class meets on the 3rd floor in the youth room.

The Serendipity Sunday School Class will continue to study/follow the scripture passages from the sermon through Rally Day, September 14.

Beginning on August 10th, the New Beginnings Sunday School Class will return to the New Testament for its next quarterly study. This quarter we will be studying four books that we don't often hear much about, the Book of James (written by Jesus' brother who wasn't a believer until after the Resurrection) and 1, 2 & 3 John (written by the disciple "whom Jesus loved", also the author of the Gospel of John and the Book of Revelation.) We'll see what James has to say in addition to "Faith without works is dead" and his comments on the power of the tongue, and what John has to say (I confess I don't remember anything from these three books.) So this should be an enlightening study and I hope you'll consider joining us, at least for a couple of weeks to see if this class might be a good fit for you. We meet in the basement, right off the elevator and will never put you on the spot. And we always review the prior week's lesson so you won't feel lost should you join us after this study has begun. Dave McCartney

How to Cope with a Fatal Illness, by Albert Ellis, PH.D. and Michael Abrams, PH.D.

I was drawn to this book while perusing the library shelves right after my son became ill. I wanted to be prepared for the worst. This book addresses the physical, emotional and spiritual aspects of claiming peace and salvation. Living each moment with God, through Christ, the Redeemer takes center stage throughout this book. I considered this a tedious read, but one I will keep in my tool kit of daily living. (Ric is slowly regaining his health)

Storm Warning by Billy Graham.

As always, Reverend Graham, does not disappoint. An easy read because it naturally flows with Biblical truths and daily application. I would recommend this book as a leisure time read to be enjoyed and to produce thought for future actions.

Taking Care, After 50, a Self-Care Guide For Seniors, by Harvey Jay Cohen, M.D.

A practical and informational guide for everyone over 50, I think. Parts of it made me laugh – oh that one is so true! "On your mind" and "Staying Safe" were the most beneficial chapters for me. The side bars, charts, graphs, and quizzes contain easy to read graphics.

From Your Lay Leader

Blessings on you, friends of PSUMC!

I was reminded by Nolan Hensel - Director of Leapin' Outreach, of a lovely song I've enjoyed singing much of my life, "They'll Know We Are Christians". Here are the lyrics:

Verse 1:

We are one in the Spirit, we are one in the Lord;

We are one in the Spirit, we are one in the Lord;

And we pray that all unity will one day be restored.

CHORUS: And they'll know we are Christians by our love, by our love, yes, they'll know we are Christians by our love.

Verse 2:

We will walk with each other, we will walk hand in hand;

We will walk with each other, we will walk hand in hand;

And together we'll spread the news that God is in our land.

CHORUS

Verse 3:

We will work with each other, we will work side by side;

We will work with each other, we will work side by side;

And we'll guard each man's dignity and save each man's pride.

CHORUS

Verse 4: All praise to the Father, from whom all things come;

And all praise to Christ Jesus, His only Son.

And all praise to the Spirit who makes us one.

CHORUS

What a message this song expresses! The lyrics give us much to contemplate... Blessings, Lynette

They'll Know We Are Christians by Cheri Akers | Sep 16, 2021

"We are one in the Spirit, we are one in the Lord. And we pray that our unity will one day be restored."

Did I just give you a childhood earworm? Are you singing that song in your head now? It kept running through my head Sunday morning while listening to the sermon.

"We will work with each other, we will work side by side. And we'll guard each man's dignity and save each man's pride."

Do you ever look around the world and wonder where all the love and unity has gone? Just a quick trip through social media will reveal all of the keyboard warriors that, based on what they write, would appear to have no heart. I think the saddest thing to me is when I see someone that I know proclaims themselves to be a Christian, yet uses that platform to shame, belittle, judge, or condemn others. The last year or two have truly been a public display of that for all to see.

"A new commandment I give to you, that you love one another: just as I have loved you, you are also to love one another. By this all people will know that you are my disciples if you have love for one another."
— John 13:34–35

Jesus, in his own words, gave us a new commandment. The greatest commandment. A single request: to love. Love like he loved. Let's reflect on what Jesus did to show love. He sought out the tax collector.

He ate with the filthiest of sinners. He sat with and touched the lepers. He performed miracles. He washed feet. He resisted the temptations of Satan. He healed. He resurrected the dead. He carried a cross. He wore a crown of thorns. He hung on that cross. He bled and suffered. He thirsted. He died. He laid alone in a tomb. At any time, he had the power to call down the power of heaven to do those things. But he did them, and he did them to show us what love looks like. What it really looks like.

And so this week, I challenge you. With everything you say and do, everything you type on social media, are your words loving like Jesus? What would Jesus do in the situation you find yourself in? What does that new commandment require of you in your situation? As followers of Jesus, we are to reflect his love for the world to see. We are to be set apart as his disciples. And he told us what will set us apart. It isn't our t-shirts or our bumper stickers. It isn't the volume of notes written in our Bibles, our playlist of worship songs, or our attendance at church events. We are to be set apart by the love we have for one another. Not just Christians. We are to show love to everyone, everywhere, every day, all the time. Yes, even those we disagree with. Even those whose actions disgust us. Even those who are living in sin. Even those who vote for someone different than us. Even those who make different decisions than us. The verse has no parameters on who we are to love and not love. We are to show the world what it means to have the love of our Savior living inside of us.

Will they know you are a Christian by your words? Your actions? Your good deeds? Your Facebook posts? Your social media comments? Your donations? Or will they know you are a Christian by your love?

Military Prayer List

I thought it might be more meaningful to know our church's connection to the military people we pray for.

In the Army:

Erika Meligan's son in-law, Waitman Kapaldo, is stationed in Ft. Knox, Kentucky.

Virginia Chaney's great grandson Brandon & his wife Page are both in the Army. Brandon is at the Tomb of the Unknown Soldiers. Page is in the Army's Justice Department.

John & Diane Row's grandson, Drew, is a green beret.

Velma Clabaugh's great nephew, Luke Bushatz, is in the National Guard in Alaska. He is in charge of over 100 guardsmen there.

In the Navy:

Ralph Craig's son, Andrew, is in the Navy Reserve in Nevada.

Stan & Jill Casey's son-in-law Darren Mills is in the New Zealand Navy.

Anita Baker's granddaughter, Kaitlyn Crosby, is stationed in California.

In the Air Force:

Rick & Terri Highfill's daughter, Lydia, is stationed in Texas.

If you know of anyone else who should be on this list, please contact Norma Stump at 267-387-1251.
