RINGING OF THE CHURCH BELL

*CALL TO WORSHIP

Leader: As we get close to Lent, may we remember that worship is like one big fast.

People: We come to worship to fast from worry.

Leader: To fast from personal agenda and temptation to control.

People: As we fast from these things, we grow hungry.

Leader: And what can fill those hunger pains better than anything else.

People: The body, the blood, the grace, and love of Jesus Christ. Amen.

*INVOCATION

Loving Lord, guide our worship this hour so that we might be worshipful people as we leave this sacred place. Worshipful in putting aside our personal agendas so that we might engage in the needs of community. Help us to see O God, that your call for us is to grow as disciple, that is not done in exclusively in studying alone, or in talking with people who are like minded, or in sheltering ourselves from the evils and dangers of this world, or by using negative words to support our position. We grow as disciples when we form relationships with those who need to hear a voice of love. When we exchange someone else's pain with grace, we heal and are healed. Amen.

SCRIPTURE READING

Isaiah 58:1-12

¹ Shout out, do not hold back! Lift up your voice like a trumpet! Announce to my people their rebellion, to the house of Jacob their sins. ² Yet day after day they seek me and delight to know my ways, as if they were a nation that practiced righteousness and did not forsake the ordinance of their God; they ask of me righteous judgments, they delight to draw near to God. ³ "Why do we fast, but you do not see? Why humble ourselves, but you do not notice?" Look, you serve your own interest on your fast day, and oppress all your workers. ⁴ Look, you fast only to quarrel and to fight and to strike with a wicked fist. Such fasting as you do today will not make your voice heard on high. ⁵ Is such the fast that I choose, a day to humble oneself? Is it to bow down the head like a bulrush, and to lie in sackcloth and ashes? Will you call this a fast, a day acceptable to the Lord? ⁶ Is not this the fast that I choose: to loose the bonds of injustice, to undo the thongs of the yoke, to let the oppressed go free, and to break every yoke? ⁷ Is it not to share your bread with the hungry, and bring the homeless poor into your house; when you see the naked, to cover them, and not to hide yourself from your own kin? ⁸ Then your light shall break forth like the dawn, and your healing shall spring up quickly; your vindicator shall go before you, the glory of the Lord shall be your rear guard. ⁹ Then you shall call, and the Lord will answer; you shall cry for help, and he will say, Here I am. If you remove the yoke from among you, the pointing of the finger, the speaking of evil, ¹⁰ if you offer your food to the hungry and satisfy the needs of the afflicted, then your light shall rise in the darkness and your gloom be like the noonday. ¹¹ The Lord will guide you continually, and satisfy your needs in parched places, and make your bones strong; and you shall be like a watered garden, like a spring of water, whose waters never fail. ¹² Your ancient ruins shall be rebuilt; you shall raise up the foundations of many generations; you shall be called the repairer of the breach, the restorer of streets to live in.

This is the Word of God for the people of God.

Thanks be to God!

THE LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.

Thy Kingdom come, thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread.

And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
and the power and the glory, forever. Amen.
